1. Three and a half million eastmarks are appropriated in the budget of the state of Brandenburg for the fiscal year of 1950 in People's Education Plan XVI.
2. Contradicting this, teletype No. 192 of the Ministry of Finance of the German Democratic Republic was received by the Ministry of Finance of Brandenburg on 17 February 1950. It read:

"According to an agreement between Minister President Grotewohl and the Minister of Finance, the FDJ district headquarters are to be financed from the budgets of the districts. Additional 6 million marks are required for the area of the Republic in addition to the financial means in the budgets of the Laender."

Of these 6 million eastmarks, 500,000 are allocated to Brandenburg.
